by adding the following language to Section 6 in the amendatory language of Tennessee Code Annotated, Section (a)(1)(B)(i), after the third sentence and by making the fourth sentence a second paragraph:

The board shall report annually to the senate and house finance, ways and means committees on the status of statewide implementation of wireless enhanced 911 service and compliance with the federal communications commission order, the status and level of the emergency telephone service charge for commercial mobile radio service subscribers and users, and the status, level, and solvency of the 911 Emergency Communications Fund. At such time that the requirements of the federal communications commission order and the provisions of this Act have been met, the board may reduce the amount of the emergency telephone service charge for commercial mobile radio service; provided, however, that such reduced amount must be adequate to cover all reasonable and necessary administrative and operating costs of the board, provide for the long-term solvency of the 911 Emergency Communications Fund which shall include compliance with the federal communications commission order, and those purposes stated in the Act.

AND FURTHER AMEND the amendatory Section 9(b) by adding the following words between the words "such" and "emergency":

non-financially distressed
